Veronika Harcsa & Bálint Gyémánt

Tell Her

"Tell Her" - the new album by Veronika Harcsa and Bálint Gyémánt.
The duo with the power and the expression of a full band.

"Tell Her" is the second international release of Hungary's favourite jazz singer-songwriter Veronika Harcsa and guitar virtuoso Bálint Gyémánt. The two musicians met during their studies in Budapest, and after having recorded several successful albums in various setups, they decided to continue as a duo.

Thanks to their musical versatility and detailed rhythmical interplay, the minimalist setting leads to a great effect, and the audience is surprised by the wide dynamic range between wholehearted lyrical playing and impassioned musical explosions.

Since their first duo album Lifelover was released by the Berlin-based jazz label Traumton to critical acclaim, their music got exposed to the international audience, and the two musicians became part of the European jazz scene.

On their upcoming tour they will present their brand new release titled Tell Her, the songs of which are based on Veronika's musical and lyrical ideas, co-arranged by Bálint and produced by the New York born music producer Jeremy Friedman.

The duo's music is a delicate and tasteful mixture of contemporary jazz and improvised pop music, full of depth, inspiration and humour.
